Dear Ms. Valdez,

My name is Paul Wordman, and I am the head of marketing at the True North Complex Center. We have learned our company has been granted the "Business of the Year" award and we are extremely honored to receive such an award.

The True North Complex Center strives to provide each of its clients with superior service while facilitating company growth and development. We are thrilled to know that our efforts have been recognized and rewarded. We could not have done it without the help and support of our clients, local community and the people of Charity.

Thank you very much for the honor.

Sincerely,

Paul Wordman, Marketing Director
